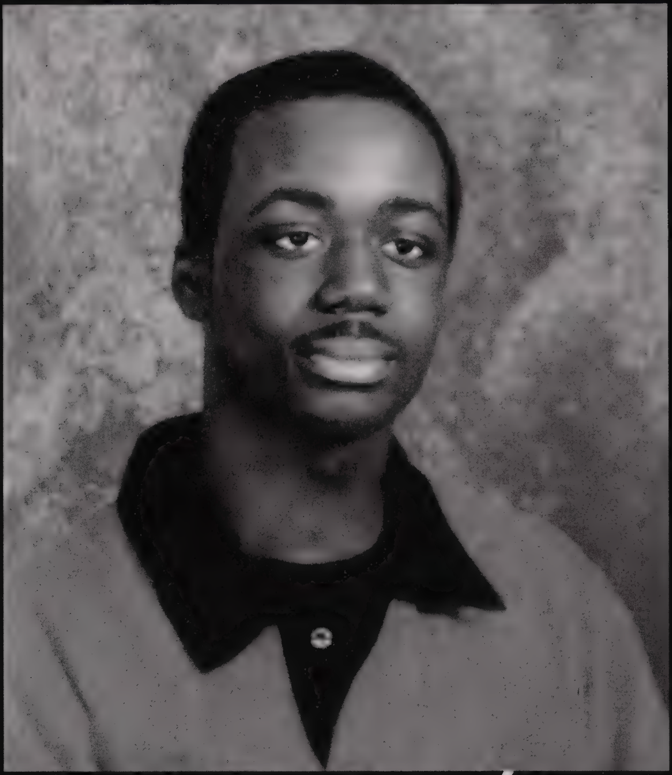
And on Graduation Day you...

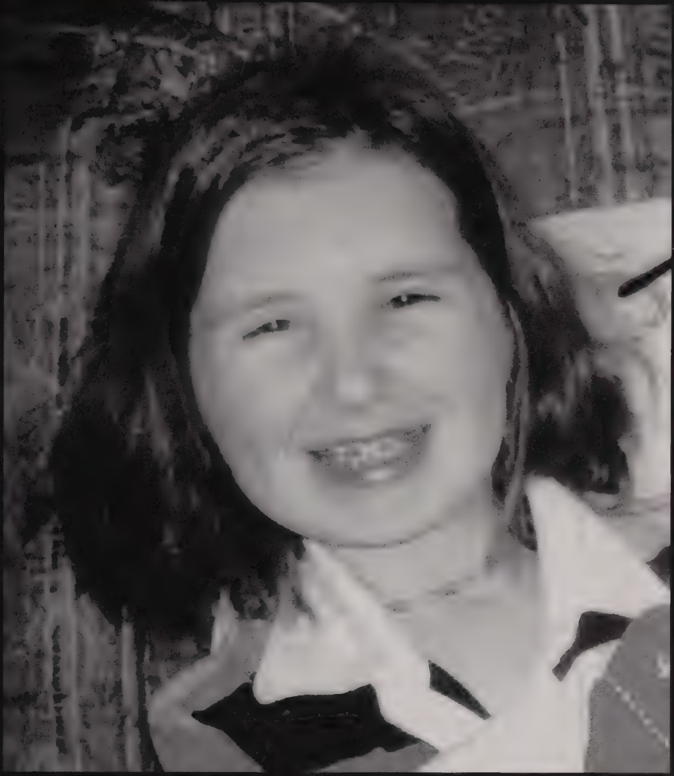


Jean E. Antoine

Like the first spring flower
Your site lit our eyes
Like a mother's hug
You brought warmth to our hearts
You kept God in your heart
As we kept you in ours
Not the wind nor the rain
Could stop you from touching
Others in ways unimaginable
A son, a brother, a friend
You now soar through the sky
Like an angel
You are a servant of God
And an inspiration to the earth
You will forever shine through
The sun and the stars
We will always feel you pass us
By in the wind

~Manny Barbosa

...both walked with us in our hearts!



Tyler A. Hunter

Everybody has a story. Some are just beginning, some are in the middle, and some have ended. My story is just beginning as the 1st chapter comes to an end as a graduate of the Class of 2004. In this chapter of my story I met a special person, Tyler Hunter. She too had a story, one that I found to be quite inspiring. Her story was filled with comedy, promise, and hope, some of the many things I learnerd from her. The lessons I learned from her everyone should learn in their life. In life, you must learn to play the cards you are dealt. She taught me, if you don't like the cards you were dealt, just change the deck because you can win everytime. I also learned to never lose hope because when hope is lost, you are lost. The most important thing I took away from her story was a lesson regarding the value of time. Life is not a race against time, she taught me to relax, go with the flow, and enjoy yourself. I never like to think of Tyler's story as being cut short, rather that it was left open ended so that we can help her finish it. I like to think that the ending of her story was her being a famous star spreading her contagious humor and enthusiasm to everyone.

To "Ty" ~ From "The Class of 2004" we won't say goodbye,because goodbye means forever. We will see you later, you are missed but not forgotten, and will live forever in our hearts. Love you -Class of 2004

2004 Yearbook Dedications

Mr. Lawrence Enos

In life, you have to over come many obstacles blocking your path to success before you can reach the top. These challenges can often become discouraging and many times it is easier to give up and lose sight of your dreams than to keep pushing through all the set backs. But we didn't, we refused to give up, because there were certain people out there who refused to let us. Certain people who never gave up hope and taught us that any dream is attainable if you work hard enough. Over the years, many people have walked in and out of our lives, but every now and then a person who comes along and touches your life in a way you never imagined. Someone who has taught you the lesson of life, and has made you a stronger, and better person along the way. Only someone with strong character and compassion can have that affect on people's lives. That is why the class of 2004 would like to dedicate our yearbook to Mr.Lawrence Enos. Mr. Enos graduated from Waltham High in 1965, where he excelled in football and track. While running track he set many records in the 100 and the 200-yard dashes, one of which still remains unbroken today. Aside from turning heads in his athletics, Mr. Enos also stood out in the classroom. He went on to Alfred University where he graduated in 1969 with a degree in math. He came back to Waltham High School to begin his teaching career in the math department, and lucky for us he remained here ever since. Mr. Enos reached out to his students with a kind heart and a smile. He got to know each and every one of his students on a personal level making him very approachable and easy to talk to. With his humble and caring personality he inspired all those around him to strive for their best and soar to new heights. After thirty-three years of teaching, this compassionate man has left footprints on all our hearts. He is a truly amazing teacher, co-worker, and mentor, but most of all an amazing friend. I am truly honored to present the 2004 Mirror Dedication to Mr. Lawrence Enos.

Mrs. Deborah Drew

As quoted by Anthony J. D'Angelo: "Without a sense of caring, there can be no sense of community." For the past four years, the class of 2004 has experienced both caring and a true sense of community from an amazing person who has given us seniors nothing but caring and kindness.

She attended Mass Bay Community College, where she studied to become a legal secretary. She worked in this position in Boston, until she had her first daughter, Danielle at which time she chose to take on a new role of a full time mother. Later she had two more children, Heather and Jen. Although she had part-time jobs, she devoted most of her time to her three girls. Her family always came first.

After her youngest daughter was enrolled in high school, she began working as a secretary at Kennedy Middle School. Just three years later she accepted a job here at Waltham High, to work along side Mr. Anthony Piantedosi.

Regardless of life's obstacles, this remarkable woman always remained extremely dedicated. During her time as secretary, she had planned two weddings along with her husband, Edward, of 31-years, is currently planning a third wedding, and is blessed with two grandchildren. Always giving 150%, she hardly missed a day.

Never without a smile, never unkind, and never forgetting a name, this phenomenal woman can brighten anyone's day. She promises to truly enhance the sense of community for the members of each class fortunate enough to travel through four years of high school under her guidance. The class of 2004 would like to dedicate this year's Mirror to Mrs. Deborah Drew, and let her know that she will always be remembered.

The time has come for all of us to gather the knowledge, memories, and experiences from the past four years at Waltham High School and invest them into the future. However, if we can think back to our last day of the eighth grade for just a moment, most of us were brought to the high school and sat in the same seats you are all in tonight. It was here that many of us were first introduced to somebody very special. Somebody that we initially thought would simply be a guide through the next four years of high school. However, when we began our high school careers at WHS in September of 2000 it was apparent this person would be more than a "guide". This person welcomed us with open arms, which gave us a feeling of comfort and created an environment for us to be able to achieve our greatest successes.

Senior year is often looked upon as one of the most memorable years of high school. These past couple of weeks have been a very exciting, yet a stressful and busy time for everybody. However, this person has managed to make everything happen: from finals to the last day of school, an amazing performance in our production of senior revue, the senior dinner, the prom, awards night, and our last chapter of our high school career on graduation day. While many people have made great efforts and assisted in one way or another, this person not only contributed, but was the one who made such wonderful events and activities even possible.

As we reflect upon the past, there are some people that stand out in our minds for various reasons. One of the people that we are dedicating the yearbook to tonight has managed to pull us through the ups and downs and losses we have encountered throughout high school. At one time or another I am sure the majority, if not all of us, have received the dreadful "YELLOW SLIPS" to this individuals office. However regardless of the situation we were always given the chance to tell our side of the story, or in some cases, beg for forgiveness. Most of the time we would be given the benefit of the doubt.

The recipient of this dedication is a life long resident of Waltham. He was a graduate of Waltham High School in the class of 1966 along with Mr. Graceffa. He attended Suffolk University where he received his Degree in Business Administration. He has also attained his masters degree from Boston University. This man began his teaching career as a substitute in November of 1971 at Waltham High School. He became a certified teacher and taught business courses beginning in September 1972. Over time, he stopped writing the blue slips as a teacher and started receiving them when he became a house-master in (1986-1991). He is a man that lives for his family, which includes a lovely-supportive wife, and three sons. Whether they are teaching, or attending events with their husband or father respectively they have all seemed to make a "family effort" at Waltham High School. We will probably be one of his last graduating classes. I think I speak for everyone when I say that we are grateful that this man chose a career in education and gave so much to nearly 400 students in the class of 2004. How he did it, no one will ever know!

Loyal, kind, and forgiving are only a few of the remarkable qualities this person embodies. It is for this and for all of the times he has been there for us that I have the honor of presenting this dedication of the Mirror from the Class of 2004 to Mr. Anthony Piantedosi.

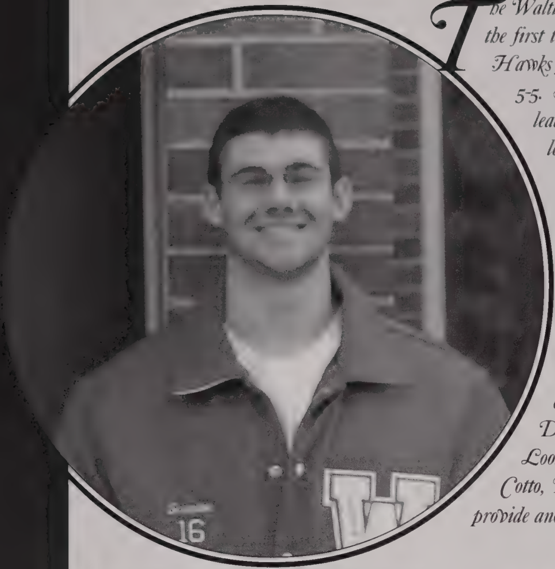
FOOTBALL



The Waltham Hawks football team entered the 2003 season without coach Dan Keohane for the first time in thirteen years. Under the new leadership of Coach Paul Mayberry, the Hawks fought hard against one of the toughest schedules in the state to finish with a record of 5-5. After falling to 2-4 early in the season, the Hawks turned things around behind the leadership of their seniors. Captains Bernadeau and DeGisi were the center of this senior leadership. The strongest point for the Hawks in 2003 was the play of their senior linemen. Bernadeau and DeGisi along with Beck, Bilello, White, Sandoval, Lobo, and Digiovine made up one of the better offensive and defensive lines in the state. Juniors Russo, Vautour, and Duca also contributed to the lines. While the lines went to war without much notice, wide receivers Mula and Bello made their names known to all. The two combined to score 10 touchdowns on the season and give the teams a boost when they needed it most. The touchdown throws came mainly from Waters, who also did the place kicking for the Hawks. Senior running backs Flynn, Santiago, and Peachey, along with junior Cotto provided the long runs. Other contributing seniors were receivers Chiasson, Burley, and Baguidy, quarterbacks DiRico and Scanlon, and linebackers Robichaud, McCue, Banks, and Falzone. Look for the Hawks to come out flying again next year with many returning starters. Cotto, Bello, Torres, Marchese, Justin, Russo, Duca, and Vautour will all be back to provide another exciting season. ~ Ryan Scanlon

FOOTBALL CHEERING

*Despite the hardships, the crying, the giddiness, the confusion, and bein extremely frustrated at times, the Waltham Hawks Football Cheering squa has conjoined nicely as if we have been together since day one. The squad 22 girls started out with seven new members, including seniors Jessica Feele and Rylee Brewer and with five other freshmen. We strove for the bes practicing three nights a week for our halftime routine. Our hard wor continued as we prepared for a competition at Shepard Hill High School o
November 2nd. We competed against Salem High School, Braintree Hig School, and Newton-North High School. With high hopes of placing a the top, we sadly walked away with 4th place. However, this setback di not bring our spirits down. We returned to Waltham with only four day to prepare a new and improved routine. Our hard work and concentratio paid off when we placed 4th among six other high schools at the Danver
High School competition on November 10th.*

VOLLEYBALL

This year, the Lady Hawks in spandex showed that they had plenty of heart. They faced a brand new year with a brand new coach, Rich Dobbyn. Such a radical change in the coaching staff could have cracked other teams, but the Lady Hawks prevailed ith an overall 11-9 record, and yet another chance to play in the tournament for the third ear running. Always ready to face a challenge, the Waltham Lady Hawks urprised Peabody, previously undefeated and number one in the GBL, by defeating hem in the Connors Gym at Waltham. Although the Hawks did not prove so ucky against Quincy in the tournament, they played hard until the last whistle was lown, reflecting their determination. The team was riddled with talented players in ll positions. The Hawks relied heavily on the consistent and accurate passes and igs of senior Trenholm and the superior setting of junior Landry and senior Powers. Senior Francis and junior Vega dominated the middle, while senior Gillis and junior Pineau could always be counted upon for their tricky role shots, heir hard driven spikes, and the ever-confusing lefty swing. The deep bench also rovided for plenty of cushioning, including the extensive back row knowledge of senior DeVincent, the aces of senior Johnson behind the serving line, and the dramatically mproved sets of senior Burdick. Although the team will be losing seven seniors, the eadership of the upcoming senior class radiates a special kind of hope, resolve, and dedication. The challenges faced and friendships made both on and off the court will not soon be forgotten.

GIRLS SOCCER

"Simply the best P.I.C."

Pride, intensity, and courage exemplified what the lady hawks of 2003 represented. This year's senior captains Marini, Melchiorri, Coletti, and Caporiccio along with the help of the other four seniors Fulton, Blackburn, Martin, and Hogan set the tone for the underclassmen, as well as the season. Finishing our season with a record of 11-7-1 did not do this team justice. This year we were faced with a much harder schedule than anticipated. However, due to our amazing team chemistry and strong character, we were able to overcome these challenges and carry on the tradition of qualifying for the state tournament for the 13th consecutive year. Entering the tournament with a low seed, we faced a strong non-league opponent, Lexington high school. Our 4-1 loss did not reflect the way the team played as a whole or the effort contributed by everyone. The girls played with heart and intensity never letting an upset bring them down. At the end of the season the 2003 Lady Hawks walked off the field with no regrets!

BOYS SOCCER

The Waltham High School Boys Soccer team started out on fire winning its first three games under the new head coach Keith Wiley. The season looked promising, but unfortunately our 6-11-1 record was not enough to allow us to qualify for the state tournament. A few lucky bounces would have made all the difference in the boys' season. The number in the win column overshadowed the fact that the Hawks wer able to compete against the toughest teams in the state. During our preseason battle, we put up a fight against Nauset, the Eastern Massachusetts South-Sectional Champions. We were the only team to score two goals on the team that went to the State Championship; this was the GBL co-champion Medford, and we fell just a few minutes away from beating GBL co-champion Everett. The Hawks proved to be one of the toughest teams in the league. The Hawks' defense was led by the experience of senior co-captain Munshi and senior Masse, both of whom were selected as GBL All-Stars. Senior co-captain Bernbach and senior Smith-Heafy exhibited toughness and passion as they made many crucial plays. Chavez left his mark by leading the tea in assists and overall points, as Severe tallied the most goals for the Hawks. The seniors also consisted of Patel, Paredes, Almeida, Shea, Calderon, Marcou, Baker, Smith, and Pineda. The highlight of the season was, without a doubt, the season-finale on Leary Field. The team finished the season in fashion as they came from behind to win the game 4-3, over the visiting team Cambridge. It was a great ending to a season that can be defined by determination, dedication, and pure heart. It has been an honor to represent Waltham High School Soccer and to be part of an amazing experience.

FIELD HOCKEY

The Waltham Lady Hawks Field Hockey Team entered the 2003 season looking to capture their seventh consecutive Greater Boston League Title. Although we did not win the league title as hoped, we did exceed many people's expectations, finishing the season with a 10-5-3 record. Our season did not start off as smoothly as in previous years, and making it into the tournament was not an easy task for us. Much of our success this season can be attributed to the leadership and diligence of Coach Denise Nugent, Captains Sinerate, and Kennen, and the other six seniors. In the backfield Zayas, Meehan, and Haley stepped it up, limiting the opponents to a minimal number of shots against a rookie goalie. In the midfield Kenney and Kennen helped the team both vocally and skillfully, helping to create many key offensive plays. Finally up front, Bedoya, Flaherty, Oliveri, and Sinerate each contributed to the scoring in nearly every game.Midway through the season the Hawks had a change of heart after beating rival Bishop Fenwick. Juniors Napolitano and the GBL leading scorer, Glynn, were major contributors in assisting the Lady Hawks into the tournament. Sophomore goalie Bourgeois amazingly managed to fill former goalie Centofanti's shoes and was a key factor in several of the Hawk's wins. Returning varsity sophomores Horgan and Wilcinski took on huge roles as they were forced to step it up to replace the eleven seniors who graduated with the class of 2003. Next year the Lady Hawks will have to replace eight graduating seniors: Flaherty, Haley, Kenney,Bedoya, Meehan, Zayas, Sinerate, and Kennen. This season was a battle for the Lady Hawks. Nothing came easy and they had to fight to earn every inch on the field. Every player on the team learned a lot about herself and, even though the dreams of attaining the GBL title were diminished in the first round, everyone of them knows who the true champions are. They are the ones wearing red and white!

The Waltham Hawks 2003 golf season turned out to be yet another success for Coach Russ Sorrin and his team. Under the leadership of Captain Daniel Buonomo and fellow seniors Jon Hayes, Steve Rippin, and Chris Keating, the Hawks battled for an undefeated season with a final record of 7-0-1. The Hawks came into the season as one of the favorites for the GBL title with an impressive one through eight. The Hawks also consisted of juniors Robert Younker, Chad Younker, James Walden, Matt Jackson, Steve Tagarelis, Teddy Tsacoyianis, and sophomores Brandon Hagopian, Jeff Leblanc, John Battaglino, John Sullivan, and Kevin Stone. Each team member made vital contributions to the victorious season. There were many noticeable highlights during the 2003 season. One of which was the memorable match of two teams holding a 7-0 record in the season finale for the GBL title. At this point in the season, the underdog Hawks battled valiantly to tie a powerhouse from Peabody, thus making the Waltham Hawks Co-GBL Champions. Furthermore, the strong performance of the Hawks in the North Sectionals resulted in 4th place. James Walden's showing in particular, at North Sectionals exemplified the true fortitude and hard work of the Hawks. Walden's round qualified him for the State Tournament as an individual where he took home a remarkable 10th place. The Hawks will be losing the camaraderie and leadership of the graduating seniors. However, there should be a great team emerging for the 2004 fall season as six top golfers are expected to be returning. As for the 2003 team, congratulations on a wonderful fall season, remaining undefeated, and being Co-GBL Champions!

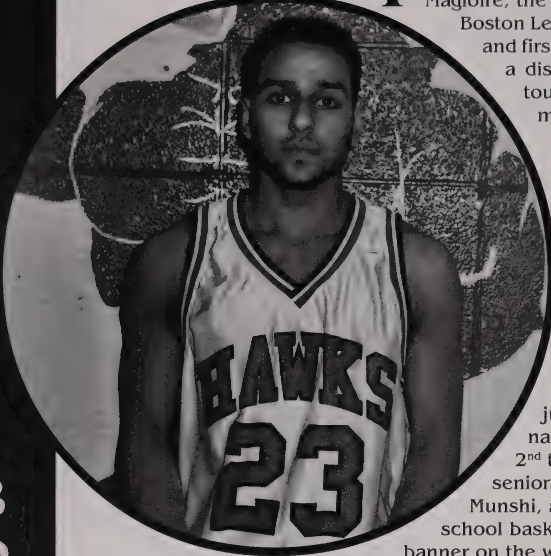
BOYS BASKETBALL



The Waltham High School 2003-2004 Basketball team accomplished something that no other Waltham Basketball team has ever done. Led by Senior Captain Walky Magloire, the team beat Cambridge Rindge & Latin to take a share of the Greater Boston League Championship. This was the first GBL title in the Hawks' history and first league title of any kind since 1968. The Hawks finished at 17-6, after a disappointing loss to Boston Latin in the opening round of the state tournament. Despite the loss, the team experienced some amazing moments during the season.

Coach Joe Cacciatore and Coach John Cox earned their 200th win this past season after the Hawks routed Malden High School. The night before this victory, the Hawks buried Everett after Magloire banked a three-pointer with no time remaining on the clock to keep their GBL title hopes alive. To earn Coach Cacciatore and Coach Cox their 201st victory, visiting Cambridge fell to the Hawks. The fans in the Connors gymnasium rushed the floor in the most memorable event in the season.

This past year marked the best times for the entire basketball program. Returning varsity starter, Magloire, led the Hawks, but he had a great supporting cast. The shotblocking ability of 6'4" senior center Aaron Bernbach, and the suffocating defense of junior Jorge Torres are just what the team needed. Magloire was named to the all-league 1st team, while Bernbach was named to the 2nd team for his efforts, and Torres was credited on the 3rd team. The seniors on the team also include Michael Burley, Carl Lormeus, Nandan Munshi, and Stanley Thermora. As this team looks back on their high school basketball careers, they will be able to say that they contributed to the banner on the wall that reads, "2003-2004 Greater Boston League Champions."

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The Waltham Lady Hawks basketball team started the 2003-2004 season off slowly, going 0-4 in our first four games. Coming from a very competitive GBL, the Hawks struggled early on in the season, especially after losing two GBL All Stars and four News Tribune All Stars. However, we managed to come together and come away with a respectable 6-14 record. Most of our team's late success can be attributed to the leadership of the four seniors, Erin Melchiori, Shawnee Verna, and co-captain Lisa Kennen and co-captain Betty Dely. Although this was the first time in recent history that we have not made a post-season appearance in the State Tournament, we still held our heads high and were proud of how far we had come and all that we had accomplished. Everyone can look to see big things from the Hawks in the future, as many promising young athletes improve. The seniors wish next years team the best of luck!

~Lisa Kennen

SWIM TEAM

Finishing with an overall GBL record of 5-2-1, the 2003-2004 Hawks Varsity Swimming and Diving Team had a very triumphant season. With senior captains, Shannon Quinn, Monica Piedrahita, Jillian Martin, and Chris Lapointe leading the way, the Hawks Swimming and Diving was fully equipped with committed leaders. Also helping in the fight was fourth year head coach Mike Gavin, and first year assistant coach Amy Parsons. With a generally young team, summing up to a grand total of 15 freshmen, the Swimming and Diving Team put up a very good fight in their first meets against very competitive non-league teams, Concord-Carlisle and Wayland. Later on in the season, the Hawks faced League Champion Malden, and battled them to a draw.

The highlight of the season was the team's big finish at the Greater Boston League Championship Meet, where the girl's side stol the show. Shannon Quinn and Diane Holmes came out on top and were each crowned League Champion in both of their events they swam that day. Shannon claimed the 200 freestyle and the 500 freestyle, while Diane won the 50 freestyle and the 100 freestyle. Monica Piedrahita won the 100 backstroke and Carly Lindahl was named champion in the 100 butterfly. Jillian Martin also had a grea showing, as she was named the Greater Boston League Champion Diver.

Senior Shannon Quinn, sophomore Diane Holmes, junior Carly Lindahl, freshman Ashley Saia, and freshman Brianne McGann would then go on to compete in the North Sectional Championship meet. Monica Piedrahita also qualified in the 100 backstroke during her first dual meet, however she was unable to swim at Sectionals. Shannon Quinn and Dianne Holmes would compete in individual events and relays, while the rest of the girls would help the Hawks in the relays.

Thanks to the help of devoted seniors, a committed coaching staff, diligent team members, and dedicated parents, the Waltham High Varsity Swimming and Divin Team had yet another successful and enjoyable season.

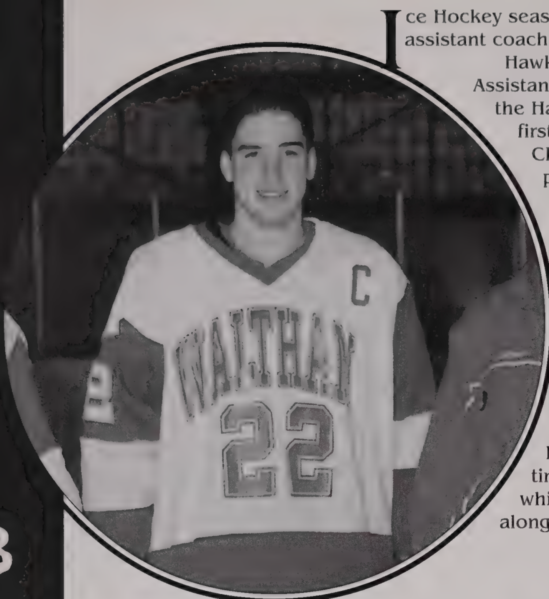
BOYS HOCKEY



Ice Hockey season was a historic one. Under head Coach John Maguire and assistant coaches Bob Cusick, Steve Trundle, Jim Galvin, and Chris Watson, the Hawks went 15-6-3. Lead by senior Captain Mike Bourque, senior Assistant Captain Ryan Mula, and junior Assistant Captain Shawn Keefe, the Hawks won their first 8 games, and went undefeated through their first 15 games. The Hawks also claimed their first individual GBL Championship. When it came time for the playoffs, the Hawks were picked for the number 5 seed in the prestigious Super 8 tournament. The Hawks advanced to the final four as the only public school left in the tournament. This amazing season ended when the Hawks lost to the 2nd ranked Catholic school power B.C. High in double overtime. This capped off a great season for the Hawks, and the high school careers of seniors Ryan Mula, Christ Keating, Daniel Buonomo, Daryl Santana, Jonathan Hayes, Tony Annino, Mike Bourque, and Steve Cappadona. At the end of the season, both the Boston Globe and the Boston Herald ranked the Hawks 3rd in the state out of all of the high school hockey teams. This was the highest-ranking Waltham Hockey team in history. When all was said and done, the senior Hawks took their equipment out of the locker room for the last time, but they will never forget the 2003-2004 season, the season in which the Hawks exceeded all expectations, while making history along the way. ~Mike Bourque

WRESTLING

The Hawks exceeded expectations under first year coach Mike Sullivan and assistant coaches Carl Cincotta and Mike Allain. Although we lost six outstanding seniors last season, the Hawks were able to break the twenty year losing streak to Weston, by beating them 17 to 15. With a record of WINS and LOSSES, the Hawks swept through Malden, Arlington, and Cambridge to claim the GBL title for the first time since 1999.

When looking back at the season, the Hawks placed 3rd at the Wayland Holiday Tournament, 4th at the Methuen Tournament, and 3rd at the Sectional Tournament. The coaching staff and team felt a great sense of pride when Rob Richard brought home another Division 1 state championship title. The five graduating seniors: Mike Robichaud, Rob Richard, Jeff Nadeau, Josh Gladman, and Brian Navin, look forward to seeing the future success of the Waltham High School Wrestling Team. Good luck next year!

SKI TEAM

Before the ski season even started at Waltham High School the Alpine ski team had already broke one record: having the largest team in history consisting of 32 skiers. Not long after, they were soon to break nother record: skiing in record low temperatures, but as usual this id not put a damper on the team's spirits! There were two full arsity teams and two full JV teams. The girls' varsity team had a reat season, clinching the Mass Bay Ski League East title for the eventh consecutive year. The boys' varsity team finished trong as well, finishing fifth in a very competitive season. here were eight dedicated seniors, including co-captains amie MacDougall and Jane Caporiccio, Jonathon Caissie, olly Fulton, Stephen Rippin, Ryan Scanlon, Stephanie Viera nd Kathleen Wheaton. We were led again by the one and nly wonderful coaching staff of Alison Renna, also an nglish teacher and soccer coach at the Waltham High chool. The girl's team qualified for the State Meet with aime Guilotti, Jane Caporiccio, Stephanie Viera, Dana acava, and alternate Krista Lundberg (racing in place of Katie ally who was injured while skiing) representing the team. For he boy's team, Ryan Scanlon qualified individually for the State eet, winning the league title, while sophomore Jaime Guillotti on the league title for the girl's team. The ski team carries a very nique bond unlike any other sport, having a coed team with students rom all different grades. The seniors wish everyone the best of luck in the 004-2005 season!

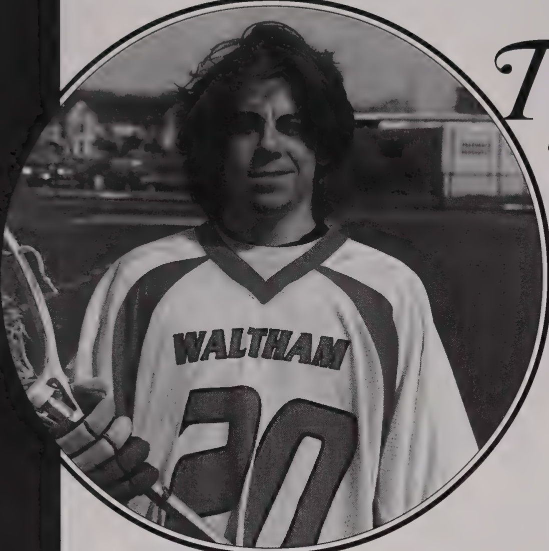
BOYS Lax



This year's team had a great start. We started out with a 4-0 record, tw of which were Greater Boston League wins. Led by senior Captains Brett McCue, Jon Hayes, and Ryan DiRico, the team has come togethe both chemistry and skill wise. The team qualified for the State Tournament, wit a win against a rough Hingham, in record time. The only two loses that th team incurred up until three games left in the regular season, was to stat champions - Duxbury and to an underrated Needham squad. With thre tough teams left to play, the Hawks are up for a challenge and are sure t succeed. They are looking forward to having a good run in the States this year Good Luck Boys - Go Get 'Em!

Stef, there isn't anyone who can spontaneously drop into a groin pulling split, mid-bout. And there certainley isn't anyone who has had the slinky incidents of Stef. Then there are the anime obsession, amateur pokes forays, and serious disease involving re haired young men. And as much as we give her a hard time, there is no one we love better. best of luck on Collegiate strips and GO CESARETTES!

Aim for your star no matter how far, you must never look back, but charge on! Attack! See your goal your star of desire, you must be obsessed with it to make it your true yearning, be ready my son for when you truly believe it, you will certainly achieve it and by all of God's universal laws you will always recieve it! Wish you the best of everything
